

EUROPEAN COLLEGE OF SPORT SCIENCE

Strategy Map 2015-2020

www.sport-science.org

Vision	To lead the promotion and application of world-class, multidisciplinary science in sport and exercise
Mission	M1: Disseminate high quality innovative science and its application		M2: Empower the development of young scientists		M3: Provide high value membership	M4: Develop strong relations with key strategic partners
For Stakeholders	Host an annual world-class congress	Produce a high impact journal	Support young scientists to success	Support career development of young scientists	Deliver a high value membership offer	Build mutually beneficial relations with key sponsors and scientific partners
Core Aims	Deliver a quality assured annual congress of relevance and impact for members, delegates and partners Deliver a high quality congress experience in terms of location, venue, networking, social interaction, sustainability and Corporate Social Responsibility	Publish an applied journal of growing impact factor that is attractive to publish in and disseminates science of high quality	Organise, manage and deliver a high profile Young Investigator Awards programme that showcases the very best talent Provide learning and mentorship experiences through the delivery of exchanges, workshops and interdisciplinary networking opportunities	Establish professional development opportunities by the provision of pathways to serve ECSS on reviewing panels, scientific committees and Executive Board	Develop a membership model that provides a high value offer which builds belonging and affiliation with the College Provide access to resources (EJSS, EVSS, EESS, EDSS, EWSS, ECSS.tv) in a cost effective manner	Develop excellent relationships with our key corporate partners that empowers collaboration and innovation of mutual benefit Develop strong bonds of cooperation with exchange partners, academic institutes and policy makers to deliver shared success
Learning & Development	L1: Secure the future of the College through excellence in leadership
	Boards Attract and support high profile committed members to boards and committees			Office Attract, develop and retain a high quality, experienced ECSS office team
Finance	F1: Secure the financial sustainability of the College through sound financial management and partnerships					